Returned and filed for record the 9th day of Sept, 1909, and recorded the 13 day of Sept, 1909.

W. H. M. Lead, Deputy.

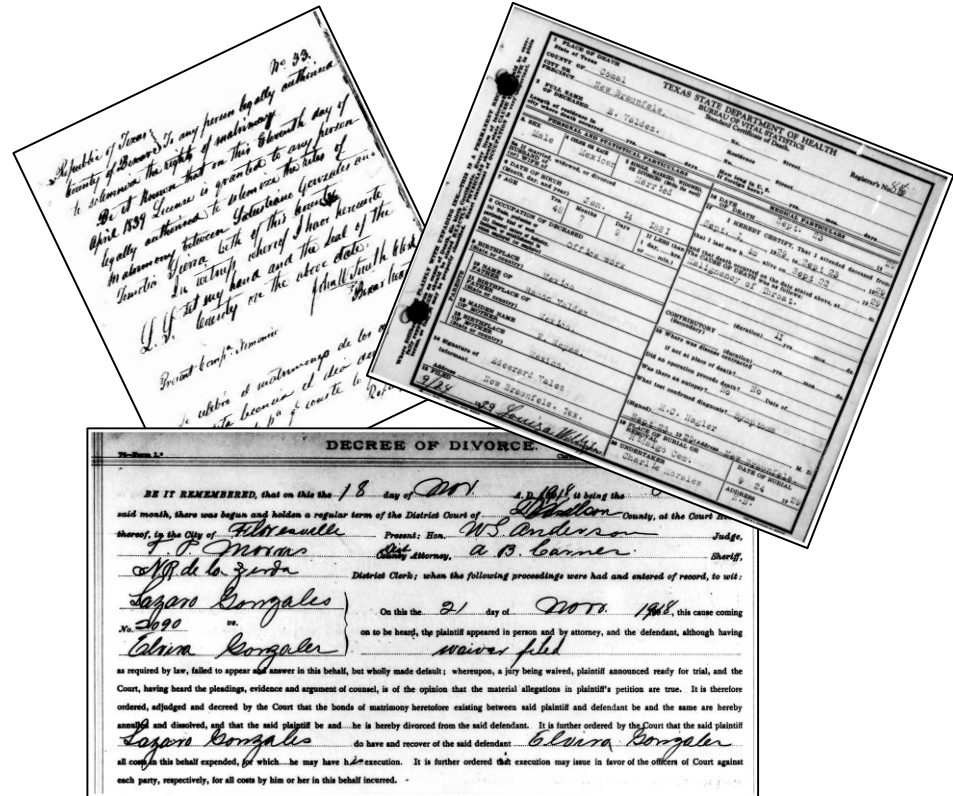

This workshop covers how to locate and obtain Texas birth, death, marriage, and divorce records.

General Information about Texas Vital Statistics

- There is no one centralized repository for all Texas vital statistics records.

- Depending on the type of record and date of the record, it could be held by a county or state level government office.

- There may be restrictions on who can access Texas vital statistics records.

- Birth records within the past 75 years.
- Death records within the past 25 years.

- Visit the Department of State Health Services website for information.

Texas Birth & Death Records After 1903

- From 1903-present, birth and death records are filed with and maintained by the Vital Statistics Unit of the Department of State Health Services.
- Statewide indexes cover 1903-2010.
  - We do not have indexes for births and deaths 2011 to present.

Texas Delayed Birth Records

- Delayed birth certificates, sometimes referred to as probate birth certificates, are issued if the birth was not recorded until a year or more after the birth occurred.
  - These can include births that occurred prior to 1903 and after 1903.
- TSLAC holds indexes to delayed birth certificates issued between 1946 and 1975.
  - We do not have indexes for delayed birth certificates issued after 1975.
    - Contact the Department of State Health Services for delayed birth records after 1975.

Texas Delayed Birth Indexes

- These indexes are not available online.
- The type of information in delayed birth indexes is similar to the standard birth indexes.
  - Name, date of birth, place of birth, file number.
    - Place of birth is typically a Texas county, but may be another state or country.
- Print indexes are available at TSLAC.
  - 5 sets of indexes printed between 1946-1975.
    - Each set is identified by the sticker on the spine.

Texas Marriage & Divorce Records

- Marriage records were only filed in the Office of the County Clerk prior to 1966.
- Divorce records were only filed with the Office of District Clerk prior to 1968.
  - No statewide index available for marriages and divorces prior to these years.

Texas Marriage & Divorce Records

- Marriage licenses are still only filed with the Office of County Clerk and divorce decrees are still only filed with the Office of District Clerk, but also now recorded at the state-level.
  - County Clerk (marriages) and District Clerk (divorces) can provide copies of the original records, DSHS can provide a verification letter.
- Statewide indexes are available for marriages (1966-2016) and divorces (1968-2015).

Examples of Texas marriage and divorce indexes published on microfiche and digitally. You can locate the names of the spouses, county where the marriage or divorce occurred, date of marriage or divorce, and sometimes a file number. Divorce indexes also include date of marriage. The digital indexes for divorces may also provide information about the number of children under 18 from the marriage.
